WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN THE GAME/QUOI SURVEILLER DANS LE MATCH

The last time the Argonauts and Bombers played against each other in a pre-season game was Kevin Eiben's rookie season. It was June 27, 2001 and the Argos lost 38-10 on a stormy, rainy day.

The Argonauts and Blue Bombers play twice in the first four games of the 2011 regular season. They don't meet again until September and for a final time at the end of October.

The Argos swept last year's regular season head-to-head series against Winnipeg three games to none. It was the first time Toronto had swept since they won both games against Winnipeg in 2005.

TEAM/ÉQUIPE

The Argos finished 9-9-0, and in third place, in 2010 while the Bombers ended the season 4-14-0 and in fourth in the East.

Toronto handily defeated another division rival, Hamilton Tiger-Cats, in pre-season week 1. On the strength of four offensive touchdowns, the Double Blue won 31-12 at Rogers Centre.

A few of the good things Argos GM & Head Coach Jim Barker identified from last week's game film include: Downfield blocking from his rookie receivers (specifically #84 Sammy Tranks and #71 Djems Kouame), strong play from the offensive line, and the mobility (Lemon) and arm strength (Bell) of the quarterbacks.

ARGOS NEWCOMERS TO WATCH:

OFFENCE

WR #87 DJ Boldin – The younger brother of NFL star Anquan Boldin, DJ has been consistent throughout camp. He's made tough, exciting catches and shown an ability to get open. Jim Barker said, "He has been outstanding out here. He catches everything, and is a lot like his brother, very physical. He is a Nik Lewis type of guy who is bigger and going to catch everything. He has been one of the top receivers without question." – Toronto Sun on June 2

WR/KR #38 Jerome Hewitt – A 5-foot, 5-inch spark plug who can run, catch and run some more. He returned a missed field goal 115-yards for a touchdown in the team's mock game and scored a receiving touchdown against the Ticats last week.

WR #71 Djems Kouame – The Argos'draft pick demonstrates every day why the team took him high in the third round of this past year's draft. He loves to play football, he's fast and he has looked at home in the team's offence. Jim Barker said, "He is just a physical kid by nature, and he has a lot of upside. We're excited about him." – Toronto Sun on June 2

WR #83 Curtis Walls – He trained with former CFL star and current TSN analyst Milt Stegall this off-season. After a few years out of football, Walls returned in terrific shape and has provided strong competition at camp. What Jim Barker said, "Athletically, [Walls] is just what you look for. We're excited about what he's shown us so far." – Toronto Star on June 2

DEFENCE

DE #93 Chris Bradwell – The big man has been taking most of Kevin Huntley's reps this training camp while Huntley rests himself in preparation for the regular season grind. He's made the most of his time practicing at a high level with lots of energy.

LB #48 Durell Mapp – The UNC grad is getting significant time at linebacker and looking comfortable in his new surroundings. He last played football in 2008 but doesn't appear to have lost a step.

DB #43 Armando Murillo – The CFL rookie hasn't played a game since 2008 as a member of the Nebraska Cornhuskers. He appears to be very cozy in the team's defence. Watch for Murillo, who has shown special teams smarts, to challenge for an active roster spot in 2011.

DL #68 Alexander Robinson – The play of the Argos' fourth round draft pick out of Western Ontario has caused coaches to take a good look at their prized Canadian. He's learned a lot in his short time as an Argo and the coaches anticipate he'll be a very good player in the CFL one day.

DB #15 Dee Webb – The Argos' defensive secondary is deep this year and Dee Webb is a big reason why. The former Stampeder has had an excellent training camp, showing poise and athleticism in all coverages.

DT #97 Claude Wroten – The man everyone's been waiting for has finally arrived. Once touted as a sure-fire first round NFL draft pick, Wroten has already shown the speed and agility that made him a dominant player for the St. Louis Rams and the Florida Tuskers of the UFL. Here's what Barker said about him, "(The wait) is worth it. He knows what our calls are, the basics of what we are doing. He will get clued in quickly." – Toronto Sun from June 19

TSN STARTS PRODUCTION ON ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARY SERIES PROFILING THE CFL'S TORONTO ARGONAUTS

- TSN commissions documentary from Aquila Productions to give fans an all-access pass inside North America's oldest professional football club –
- Four-part documentary series on the CFL and Argos to air throughout the summer on TSN –

Toronto, ON (June 9, 2011) – TSN huddles up with the CFL and the Toronto Argonauts Football Club as Canada's Sports Leader announced today it has started production on a CFL documentary series that gives fans unprecedented access inside one of the league's most storied franchises.

Commissioned by TSN and produced by Aquila Productions in association with TSN, the four-part documentary series follows the Argonauts from this season's training camp to the team's Labour Day Weekend game against the BC Lions on September 2. From rookies trying to make the cut to veterans holding on for one more year, each 60-minute episode delivers exclusive behind-the-scenes footage to CFL fans as the Double Blue hits the gridiron against the league's top teams. The series also goes inside both the dressing room and boardroom for unfiltered access to players, coaches and executives.

The first of its kind for the CFL, the documentary series will premiere at the start of the 2011 CFL regular season and air throughout the summer.

"The CFL prides itself on being accessible to Canadians, and this documentary series will bring fans closer to the game than ever before," said Stewart Johnston, President of TSN. "It is very rewarding for TSN to partner with the CFL and the Toronto Argonauts on a project that will truly capture the blood, sweat and tears of Canada's league and showcase everyday life on and off the field."

"A CFL team takes an incredible journey together during a season, full of highs and lows, adversity and accomplishment," said Mark Cohon, Commissioner of the CFL. "Really sharing that journey with our fans, with the help of the master storytellers at TSN, will bring our fans even closer to our game."

"The Toronto Argonauts are extremely excited to be the focus of this television series and are looking forward to working with both TSN and Aquila Productions," said Bob Nicholson, President and CEO of the Toronto Argonauts. "We know how hard our coaches, staff and players work to take Argos football to the highest competitive level and strive to be the Grey Cup champions. We know what a great and diverse group of characters we have on our team. We know how much we do in the community to help mentor youth in the GTA. Now, with this series, all Canadians will have a chance to go inside and see what we already know. We look forward to exposing more fans to Double Blue football."

TSN.ca and Argonauts.ca complement the documentary series with footage and clips from the show on both websites. TSN RADIO 1050, the official radio station of the Toronto Argonauts, will also feature interviews with key individuals featured in the four-part series this summer.

TSN has partnered with Aquila Productions to produce original Canadian programming on several occasions, most notably on the network's critically-acclaimed 12-hour documentary series 100 YEARS OF CANADIAN SPORTS in 1999 and the six-part documentary series OIL CHANGE, which featured an exclusive look inside the Edmonton Oilers organization during the 2010-11 NHL regular season.

Just days before the 2011 season opener on July 1, Family Day is a free, unique and interactive experience for the whole family as Argos fans get an opportunity to watch the team practice and meet the players, coaches and cheerleaders.

Fans will be able to participate in hands-on drills such as a First Down competition, a Football Throw, a Football Kick, and an Obstacle Course on the field. Marc Angelo Foods will be on site to BBQ sausages and Jones Soda will be sampling product for all participants. Argos supporters are encouraged to “think green” and bring refillable water bottles to the event. While there will be water for sale on-site, there will be a free Water Refill section with clean filtered refillable water from Water-on-Wheels.

The day starts with an Argos practice, followed by a minor football scrimmage and a performance by the 2011 Argos Cheerleaders. Local dance groups and Jason the Argos mascot will entertain the crowd, followed by formal player introductions. The Argonauts Alumni Association will have a booth where Argos legends will sign autographs and pose for photos. In-stadium host Mark Strong and in-stadium announcer Nathan Downer will emcee the day, interviewing players and alumni. Music will be provided by Argos DJ Scott Boogie.

The Toronto Sun is setting up a Photowall where fans can pose in the action with Argos cheerleaders and Jason the Argos mascot. Fans can view their photos after the event at argonauts.ca. If you are on the hunt for brand new 2011 Argos merchandise from Reebok, Family Day is the place to be. Autographed memorabilia, jerseys and helmets will also be on-sale for collectors in your family.
